III. Important Information

- If you will be teaching Risk Management, you must use the Commission-prescribed outline. All courses must be approved by submission of a Real Estate Continuing Education Course Application and course review fee.
- You cannot begin teaching a continuing education course until you receive written approval for the course from the Alabama Real Estate Commission.
- Exams are not required for CE courses; therefore, any licensee who attends 100% of any approved CE course will receive continuing education credit. Names and license numbers of students attending 100% of a CE course must be electronically entered into CMap (Course Management Application Program) in order for proper credit to be awarded.
- Rule 790-X-1-.09 allows for denial of an instructor application if the applicant has been found guilty of violating any provision of the Real Estate License Law or any rule, regulation, or order of the licensing authority in any state. If you hold a real estate license in another state, you must provide a certification of licensure (license history) from appropriate states.
- All appropriate documentation must be received within 30 days of the date the application was received or it will be denied.
